

U.S. imposes new rules on state-owned Chinese media over propaganda concerns | Reuters

By Jonathan Landay

February 21, 2020

WASHINGTON (Reuters) – The Trump administration said on Tuesday said it will begin treating five major Chinese state-run media entities with U.S. operations the same as foreign embassies, requiring them to register their employees and U.S. properties with the State Department.

Two senior state department officials said the decision was made because China has been tightening state control over its media and President Xi Jinping has made more aggressive use of them to spread pro-Beijing propaganda.

[...]

Source: U.S. imposes new rules on state-owned Chinese media over propaganda concerns | Reuters