African Immigrant Organizations Fight COVID-19 Vaccine Disinformation | NPR

By All Things Considered
April 7, 2021

> Switching between Swahili and English, Dr. Frank Minja asked the African immigrants on the Zoom call if they had any questions about the COVID-19 vaccine.
>
> Minja, who is originally from Tanzania, was asked how to get the vaccine, how it works, whether it's safe.
>
> Then one person asked him about a video promoting the conspiracy theory that the vaccine is part of a plot to reduce the Black race.
>
> "That's the realm of nonsense and misinformation," he said.
