“Decoding Hate” Podcast Series | Decoding Hate

By Katie Pentney
April 8, 2021

> This six-episode podcast series explores the interplay between freedom of expression, hate speech and artificial intelligence (AI). While covering these topics broadly, this series also take a deeper look discussing new field developments such as the #SAIFE project, Jillian York’s latest book “Silicon Values: The Future of Free Speech Under Surveillance Capitalism,” Sahana Udupa’s AI4Dignity project, and the proposed Digital Services Act. See more and listen to the series on the Decoding Hate website.
