

Britain sets up team to tackle coronavirus disinformation | Reuters

By Kylie MacLellan

March 10, 2020

LONDON (Reuters) – The British government said on Monday it had set up a team to tackle “interference and disinformation” around the spread of coronavirus.

Britain has so far confirmed 273 cases of the virus and three deaths. Prime Minister Boris Johnson is chairing a meeting of the government’s emergency committee on Monday to discuss possible measures to try to delay the spread.

[...]

Source: Britain sets up team to tackle coronavirus disinformation | Reuters