

Democrats push Twitter, Facebook to remove vaccine ‘disinformation dozen’ | The Hill

By Rebecca Klar

April 21, 2021

Democratic Sens. Amy Klobuchar (Minn.) and Ben Ray Luján (N.M.) are asking Facebook and Twitter to take action against a dozen accounts identified in a recent report as spreading the majority of anti-vaccine content on their platforms.

Klobuchar and Luján wrote a letter to the two company CEOs urging them to address the “Disinformation Dozen” named in a recent report published by the Center for Countering Digital Hate (CCDH).

“For too long, social media platforms have failed to adequately protect Americans by not taking sufficient action to prevent the spread of vaccine disinformation online,” they wrote, according to a copy of the letter shared with The Hill on Monday.

[...]

Source: Democrats push Twitter, Facebook to remove vaccine ‘disinformation dozen’ | TheHill