

EU foreign policy chief denies report on China disinformation altered | The Guardian

By Jennifer Rankin

May 1, 2020

The European Union's foreign policy chief has rejected allegations that a report on Chinese disinformation and the global coronavirus pandemic was watered down in response to pressure from Beijing.

Speaking at a specially convened meeting of the European parliament's foreign affairs committee, Josep Borrell said the content and the timing of the European External Action Service's public assessment on disinformation and the pandemic had been determined by the EEAS alone. "We have not bowed to anyone," he said. "There was no watering down of our findings, however uncomfortable it could be."

[...]

Source: EU foreign policy chief denies report on China disinformation altered | The Guardian