

From the People Who Brought You Project 2025: Manufactured Evidence of Voter Fraud | Brennan Center for Justice

By Jasleen Singh

September 18, 2024

The DC-based Heritage Foundation has long spread disinformation about elections, claiming there is widespread voter fraud despite ample evidence to the contrary. More recently, it has gained attention for its authoritarian and antidemocratic Project 2025 plan for a second Trump administration.

Ahead of this fall's election, Heritage has been at the forefront of pushing the lie that noncitizens are registering and voting in significant numbers, laying the groundwork for election deniers to use in case the results don't go their way.

Source: From the People Who Brought You Project 2025: Manufactured Evidence of Voter Fraud | Brennan Center for Justice