

Is OAN the Leading Edge of Russian Misinformation? | The Atlantic

By Edward-Isaac Dovere

June 12, 2020

In what appears to be a signal of intensifying political warfare ahead of the November election, One America News Network, the Trump-supporting cable channel that has been promoting anti-Biden conspiracies for several months, says it has obtained several hours of secret recordings of then-Vice President Biden's conversations with Ukrainian officials. If such recordings exist, they're likely linked to pro-Russian interests in Ukraine and a Russian intelligence operation, two former U.S. ambassadors to Ukraine and a former ambassador to Russia told me. The OAN employee who claims to have the tapes would not say what was on them, other than suggesting that they will be revelatory.

[...]

Source: Is OAN the Leading Edge of Russian Misinformation? | The Atlantic