June 29, 2020

We are looking for a postdoctoral fellow to join the Observatory on Social Media (OSoMe, pronounced awe•some) at Indiana University Bloomington (IUB) under the direction of Filippo Menczer. The research will address the intersection of computing, network, data, and media sciences with a focus on (mis/dis)information diffusion and the detection and countering of online manipulation.

The Fellow will be expected to maintain an active research profile; to conduct independent research on significant projects; to present work in progress at professional conferences and sponsored workshops; and to assist with the development of funding proposals and scientific papers.
