

Majority Leader Schumer Floor Remarks On The Senate's First AI Insight Forum To Take Place Next Week | The Senate Democratic Caucus

By Senate Democrats

September 12, 2023

Next week the Senate will host one of the most important conversations of the year when the top minds in artificial intelligence convene for our first AI Insight Forum.

It will be a meeting unlike any other that we have seen in the Senate in a very long time, perhaps ever: a coming together of top voices in business, civil rights, defense, research, labor, the arts, all together, in one room, having a much-needed conversation about how Congress can tackle AI.
