

Meta removes many hate speech protections | Open Terms Archive

By Matti Schneide

January 8, 2025

Meta rewrote the “hate speech” section of its Community Guidelines, significantly broadening the content allowed on its platforms Facebook, Instagram and Threads. The rewritten section is now called “hateful conduct” and removes the statement that hate speech “creates an environment of intimidation and exclusion”. It also removes every mention to “offline violence” that could result from online hate speech.

[...]

Source: Meta removes many hate speech protections