

Opportunity: Countering COVID19 Disinformation | National Security Innovation Challenge

By NSIN

October 6, 2020

Want to limit the impact of disinformation and misinformation on U.S. national security (and human security)? COVID19 disinformation is just the latest element in Russian and Chinese narrative campaigns. To counter disinformation effectively, the Department of Defense (DoD) needs to be able to identify, visualize and evaluate disinformation narrative themes in near real time.
