

Report on Information Laundering Against Disinformation Research | The American Sunlight Project

By The American Sunlight Project

September 4, 2024

This report details the coordinated effort to discredit independent, private-citizen researchers and counter-disinformation initiatives, attempts to falsely label them as government censors, and the negative impacts these efforts have had on American democracy over the last four years.

[...]

Source: Report on Information Laundering Against Disinformation Research — The American Sunlight Project