Despite negative headlines and growing concerns about social media's impact on youth, teens continue to use these platforms at high rates - with some describing their social media use as "almost constant," according to a new Pew Research Center survey of U.S. teens.

The survey - conducted Sept. 26-Oct. 23, 2023, among 1,453 13- to 17-year-olds - covered social media, internet use and device ownership among teens.
