

Transgender users accuse TikTok of censorship | BBC

By Cristina Criddle

February 13, 2020

Transgender users on TikTok have complained of censorship after their posts were removed.

Videos, including some of people discussing their lives, were taken down and others had the sound removed, according to some posters.

TikTok said some posts were deleted for breaking guidelines but could not explain why others were removed.

LGBT charity Stonewall said the action sent a damaging message to young trans people using the platform for support.

[...]

Source: Transgender users accuse TikTok of censorship | BBC News