

US government is funding website spreading Covid-19 disinformation | The Guardian

By Stephanie Kirchgaessner and Andrew Roth

May 29, 2020

The US government is funding a website in Armenia which is spreading disinformation about the coronavirus pandemic, including warnings that Armenians ought to “refuse” future vaccine programmes.

The website, Medmedia.am, was launched with the help of a US State Department grant meant to promote democracy, but instead has been used to promote false information about Covid-19, according to an investigation by the British news website openDemocracy.

[...]

Source: US government is funding website spreading Covid-19 disinformation | The Guardian